Protection of Personal Data

Privacy Policy

The Malta Crafts Foundation takes the protection of your privacy very seriously and recognises its obligations as a Data Controller in terms of applicable data protection law, mainly the General Data Protection Regulation EU 679/2016 as supplemented by the Data Protection Act (Chapter 586 of the Laws of Malta) and any other laws which relate to privacy and electronic communications.

This Privacy Policy explains The Malta Crafts Foundation's current policies and practices with regards to personal data which you provide us with and sets out how The Malta Crafts Foundation uses and protects any information that you provide.

You are hereby informed that the personal data provided by contestants to participate in the contest, are necessary and mandatory to manage their participation and, as applicable, to deliver the prize.

This data will be incorporated into a file in the custody of The Malta Crafts Foundation (registered office at c/o INDIS Malta, 88, Msida Valley Road Birikirkara. BKR 1920) and used for the sole purpose of managing contest participation, communication, and prize allocation, including, as appropriate, the posting on social media and other communication channels belonging to The Malta Crafts Foundation of any information related to the cultural events organised by The Malta crafts Foundation, the control and management of the awards given, the administration of winners and participants, and the public announcement of the winners and prizes.

Likewise, by participating in the contest, participants consent and accept that their data may be transferred by the Malta Crafts Foundation for other correspondence with participants (email, catalogues, events, etc.). Once the contest is over, the Malta Crafts Foundation will retain the data of the participants and winners who gave their consent to incorporate the same into a file for the purposes of staying informed about the Foundation's latest promotions and activities. The processing of personal data will be performed in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation 679/2016 of the European Parliament and of the Council (GDPR). Participants may withdraw their consent at any time for any reason, simply by communicating as much to the Malta Crafts Foundation through any means. Nevertheless, you are hereby informed that the withdrawal of consent during the contest will terminate your participation in the same. Likewise, we would like to inform you that you can exercise your rights of access, rectification, erasure, portability, opposition, the right to be forgotten, and/or non-systematic processing to obtain profiles by sending a written request specifying which right you wish to exercise, with a copy of your national identification document or equivalent, to the address indicated. In addition, participants agree to notify the Malta Crafts Foundation of any changes to their personal data in order that it is up-to-date at all times and devoid of errors. The personal data of the Winner may be published by Malta Crafts Foundation in any means at their disposal, such as its website www.maltacrafts.org or on social media in order to promote the Prize and ensure its transparency.

The mechanics of the contest require that the data be provided in a truthful and complete manner, and that the data is maintained and updated with the cooperation of participants. If the personal data is dubious, incomplete, or out-of-date the Malta Crafts Foundation is released, with regard to the specific cases, from the successful completion of the contest and any consequence related to the foregoing, ultimately arriving at the non-declaration of a contest winner as a last resort.

The Malta Crafts Foundation is fully committed to protecting your privacy. In recognition of our legal duty to respect and protect your personal information, we commit to take all necessary safeguards to prevent unauthorised access and any personal data collected from you as a participant, is not passed on to any third party, without your authorised consent.

USE OF PERSONAL DATA

Personal data submitted will be used for the purposes specified in this Privacy Policy. In addition to the uses identified elsewhere in the Privacy Policy, we may use your personal information to provide other companies with statistical information about our users – but this information will not be used to identify any individual user. We will not without your express consent provide your personal information to any third parties for the purpose of direct marketing.

YOUR RIGHTS

In addition to the rights identified elsewhere in the Privacy policy, you have the right to:

- Access your personal data by submitting your request in writing to us. We may request specific information from you to enable us to verify your identity and for more information about your request;
- Request amendments to any inaccurate personal information we may hold about you;
- Stop direct messages by the Malta Crafts Foundation;
- Object to certain processing based on legitimate interest;
- Withdraw consent for other consent-based processing at any time;
- Request that we transfer elements of your data either to you or any other service provider.

OTHER DISCLOSURES

In addition to the disclosures reasonably necessary for the purposes identified elsewhere in this Privacy Policy, we may disclose information about you:

To the extent that we are required to do so by law; and In connection with any legal proceedings or prospective legal proceedings. Except as provided in this Privacy Policy, we will not provide your information to third parties.

INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFERS

Information that we collect may be stored and processed in and transferred between any of the countries in which we operate in order to enable us to use the information in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

AMENDMENTS OF THIS PRIVACY POLICY

Due to ongoing changes, changes in the law and changes in the nature of technology, we may revise these terms and conditions of use from time to time by amending this policy. Updated policies will be published on the Facebook page of the Foundation and/or uploaded on the website www.maltacrafts.org. In this regard, you are encouraged to visit the FB page and/or website frequently and take note of any changes made.

APPLICABLE LAW AND JURISDICTION

These rules and all rights and obligations herein, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Laws of Malta. Any proceeding and/or legal action arising out of, or in connection with these rules and in a general manner with the Prize, shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Malta.
