Category 3: Emerging Makers Award

This Award recognises emerging makers who are passionate about ensuring that traditional craft skills survive into the future. The award winner could have graduated from full-time studies between 1-5 years ago at the date of application and/or have established a craft or design enterprise in the past 5 years. The Award offers professional support and the opportunity for makers to build their profile at a very early stage in their career.

1. Definitions

- 1.1 Applicant: the maker submitting the application whether as an individual or representing an organisation.
- 1.2 Maker: An artisan / a craftsperson who has studied and is working in one of the 'List of arts, skills, trades and industries' in the annex.
