Category 3: Recognition - Maker of the Year

This award recognises a craftsperson who is outstanding in their specific craft and the contribution they have made to crafts in particular during the past year and in general the preceding ones. This award will recognise a contribution that is made to a particular traditional skill or to raise the profile of their craft. We expect this to be someone who makes excellent work and has done so for some time, but it need not be the most glamorous or high-end craft; we promote the simple, humble crafts too. Anyone, including the maker themselves, can nominate for this award.
